WELCOME

More legislation than ever before is decided upon at European level. These are things which affect the day-to-day running of a printing company. It is vital that the European graphic industry is strongly represented.

The European Commission works closely with trade associations like Intergraf to provide 'industry consensus' on policy issues. Intergraf acts as an alert function for national printing associations on these issues. We also provide a necessary counterweight to other industry representations (e.g. paper, publishers, etc.).

Founded in 1930 and based in Brussels since 1984, Intergraf represents 21 member associations from 20 European countries. We are the voice of 110,000 printing companies with 600,000 employees and an annual turnover of €79 billion. We are also a founding member and secretariat of the World Print & Communication Forum (WPCF), as well as the secretariat of FTA Europe, the trade association representing the European flexographic printing community.

As an Intergraf Member, you will have access to our network. You can also take advantage of a vast array of other exclusive benefits. These include access to exclusive market reports (both general and niche) and active involvement in Intergraf's EU policy and advocacy activities.

We look forward to working with you!

“The biggest value of my membership of Intergraf is that I have the opportunity to build relationships and share knowledge with European colleagues working in my industry. At Intergraf’s events I have met printing experts from all over the world who offer unique insights into the communication industry and I take inspiration from these interactions, using best practices I have learned in my own work.”

Håvard Grjotheim, Former Intergraf President and Former CEO of 07 Group

EVENTS

Alongside our recurring annual events (General Assembly, Directors' Conference and Print Matters for the Future conference), Intergraf also organises individual events and meetings that address niche areas of the printing industry (Shaping the Future of Print event series). In recent years, this has included book printing, direct mail, magazine printing, packaging and commercial printing, with successful events organised in cooperation with Smithers across Europe.

SECURITY PRINTING

Intergraf manages a special interest group for security printing, dedicated to serving this specific part of the industry. Since 1976, we have organised one of the largest security printing events in the world: Intergraf Currency+Identity, where industry experts meet customers to discuss trends and new technologies for currency and ID documents.

CERTIFICATION OF SECURITY PRINTERS

Intergraf develops standards for security printers and their suppliers and initiated the development of CWA 14641, CWA 15374 and most recently ISO 14298 in cooperation with representatives from standardisation bodies and industry experts from 25 different countries. The Intergraf ISO 14298 certification guarantees security printers and their customers state-of-the-art security measures.
