5. Participants' list

By registering to Intergraf's Chapter 2 of Shaping the Future with Books, you agree that the following information will be shared with other attendees of the event: your name, job title, company name and country. You can opt out from being listed on the participant's list by contacting dmelissinou@intergraf.eu.

6. Photography, audio and video recording

By attending Intergraf's event be it in person or virtually, you acknowledge and agree that you are giving Intergraf consent to store media (photos, videos) for all those meetings that you join, if such media are in our system. If you do not consent to being recorded, you can choose to leave the meeting or event. You allow Intergraf or any third party licensed by Intergraf to use, distribute, broadcast or otherwise globally disseminate your likeness, name, voice and words before, during and any time after the event, and in any form, without any further approval from you or any payment to you. This includes the right to edit the media, and the right to use that media alone or together with other information.

7. Disclaimer

The agenda of the event is correct at the time of publication. However, amendments to the content or speakers may occur.

Intergraf reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the event in case of reasons beyond our control, such as war, danger of war, revolts, strikes, shut out of workers, transportation difficulties, fire, communicable disease, terrorist attacks or any other severe disturbances affecting Intergraf or its suppliers. Intergraf is not responsible for any expenses/fees related to travel arrangements as a result of such cancellation.

8. COVID-19

In order to participate in this event, you will need to follow all of the rules set by the Frankfurter Buchmesse, where the conference will be held. You can read the rules here.

If you will be travelling from a different country, you will need to check and comply with all of the necessary entry regulations and other hygiene measures in place for Germany.
